

LAURA FREESE
TRUSTEE

Councilwoman Laura Freese was elected to the San Juan Capistrano (SJC) City Council in 2008 and currently serves as May Pro Tem.

In addition to her position on the City Council, Councilwomen Freese also the chair of the Community Redevelopment Agency; a voting member in the League of California Cities; a board member on the San Juan Basin Authority, the Orange County Vector Control District, the OC Library Advisory Board and the Ecology Center.

In addition to her involvement with the City Council she has 15 years of experience in the tax business and corporate marketing. Councilwomen Freese currently owns Saving Express So OC a direct mailing marketing business. She completed a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from the University of California Santa Barbara and continued with her education to earn her Master of Science Degree in Taxation from Robert Morris University.

Professional organizations of which Councilwoman Freese is a retired member and past officer include President of the Business network International SJC Chapter, Secretary SJC Chamber of Commerce, Co-Chair of Economic Development Community, Chair of SJCE Housing Advisory Committee, Board Member of Downstairs Theatre, and President of El Camino Junior Women's Club.