

MARK ROSEN
TRUSTEE

Trustee Mark Rosen was appointed to the Orange County Vector Control District in July 2009 to fill the vacancy left by the death of Sheldon Singer.

Trustee Rosen served on the Garden Grove City Council from 1998 to 2008, when he was termed out. While on the council, he was elected Mayor Pro Tem five times by his colleagues. He also served as chair of the city's Community Redevelopment Agency and the Cable Corporation. Prior to joining the council, he served on the Planning Commission for four years and the Neighborhood Improvement Commission for two years.

Trustee Rosen sat on the Orange County Transportation Authority Board of Directors from 2005 through 2008. He served as the Chair of the Highways Committee and also served as a member of the Executive Committee and the Legislative and Communications Committee.

Trustee Rosen's other County service includes the County John Wayne Airport Commission and the Orange County Integrated Waste Management Commission.

Trustee Rosen has been a practicing attorney in private practice for 32 years, with an emphasis in business and real estate litigation and election law. He is admitted to practice in all the courts of California and the United States Supreme Court. Trustee Rosen has been a volunteer temporary judge for the Orange County Superior Court since 1990 and hears fee dispute arbitrations for the Orange County Bar Association. He is a graduate of the UCLA Law School and the University of California at Berkeley, where he graduated Phi Beta Kappa. He has three children and resides in Garden Grove. In his spare time he enjoys traveling: he has been to all 50 states and recently returned from a visit to China.
